

THE HONORABLE MARSHA J. PECHMAN

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

FRANTZ SAMSON, a Washington resident, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

V.

UNITEDHEALTHCARE SERVICES, INC.,

Defendant.

NO. 2:19-cv-00175-MJP

STIPULATED MOTION AND PROPOSED SECOND AMENDED
PROTECTIVE ORDER¹

NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
January 11, 2024

I. STIPULATION

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential

¹ This Stipulated Proposed Amended Protective Order is consistent with the Court’s Stipulation and Amended Protective Order entered on November 7, 2019, Dkt. No. 63. The only change to this Stipulated Proposed Second Amended Protective Order, as compared to the Court’s prior Protective Order, is found in Paragraphs 2 and 12 which the parties have agreed to amend in order to confirm their obligations under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”) when producing call recordings and other records related to individual class members.

1 treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to 2 file confidential information under seal.

4 2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

5 “Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things
6 produced or otherwise exchanged: (1) personal and private information regarding Plaintiff and 7 proposed class members, including current and former street addresses for natural persons, social 8 security numbers, telephone numbers, email addresses, dates of birth, driver’s license numbers, 9 account numbers, maiden names, and passwords; (2) confidential business and financial 10 information; (3) trade secrets or other confidential research, development, or commercial
11 information; and (4) patient health information (“PHI”) that is protected under the Health
12 Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”), 45 C.F.R. Parts 160 and 164 (Privacy
13 Rules), or other applicable statute. With respect to any PHI, the producing party may (but is not 14 required to) redact any information concerning physical or mental health condition and/or health 15 care, but shall not redact name and contact information (e.g., phone number, e-mail, physical 16 address). To the extent the producing party can produce requested information without also 17 producing the irrelevant information concerning physical or mental health condition and/or 18 health care, the producing party will produce the requested information and refrain from 19 producing the irrelevant information. For example, if names and contact information is 20 maintained in a structured database that also houses information regarding physical or mental 21 health, the database should be queried so that the requested names and contacted information are 22 produced and the information regarding physical or mental health is not produced.

23 It is the parties’ intent that information will not be designated confidential without a good
24 faith belief that it has been maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good 25 cause why it should not be part of the public record in this case.

26

27

1 3. SCOPE

2 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 3 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) 4 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony,
 5 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

6 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover (1) information that 7 is in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise; (2) any 8 information known to the receiving party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the receiving 9 party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no 10 obligation of confidentiality to the designating party; and (3) information regarding or relating to 11 the receiving party.

12 Finally, any use of confidential material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement 13 or order.

14 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

15 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed
 16 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 17 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to 18 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential
 19 material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner
 20 that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement. It is expressly 21 intended and agreed that Confidential material will not be made public via social media, Internet 22 publication, or otherwise.

23 4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise 24 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may 25 disclose any confidential material only to:

26 (a) the parties;

1 (b) the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, as well as employees
2 of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

3 (c) the officers, directors, and employees (including in-house counsel) of the 4 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

5 (d) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for 6 this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit
7 A);

8 (e) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff, including 9 any court reporter or videographer reporting a deposition;

10 (f) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication 11 of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
12 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately
13 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

14 (g) witnesses or potential witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 15 reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound"
16 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 17 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 18 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted
19 under this agreement;

20 (h) mediators or settlement officers, and their supporting personnel, hired or 21 appointed to address any issue(s) in the litigation;

22 (i) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 23 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

24 (j) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and professional 25 vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 26 "Acknowledgement and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A); and 27 (k) other persons by written agreement of the parties.

1 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 2 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party,
 3 in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will 4 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion
 5 to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 6 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue, 7 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to 8 sealing the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be 9 followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to 10 file material under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must 11 satisfy the requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion
 12 to seal. Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in 13 accordance with the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

14 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

15 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Before any 16 information is designated "CONFIDENTIAL," counsel of record for the designating party must 17 first review the information and make a determination, in good faith, that it is confidential or 18 otherwise entitled to protection under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). Each party or non-party that 19 designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take care to limit any 20 such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The 21 designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items,
 22 or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the material, documents, 23 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within 24 the ambit of this agreement.

25 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. For example, if a
 26 database or information structure falls within the scope of this Agreement, the CONFIDENTIAL 27 designation applies only to the proprietary structure and/or schema of the database or

1 informational structure. A party who would like to designate the underlying data as 2 CONFIDENTIAL must do so independently from the proprietary structure and/or schema.
 3 Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper
 4 purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose 5 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

6 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated 7 for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other 8 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

9 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 10 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 11 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 12 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

13 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents
 14 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 15 proceedings), the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that 16 contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies 17 for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by 18 making appropriate markings in the margins).

19 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties 20 and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other 21 pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other 22 testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after 23 receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the 24 transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. Entire deposition transcripts should rarely, if ever,
 25 be designated as confidential. Any party who fails to designate a deposition transcript, designate 26 portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential within thirty days after receipt has 27

1 waived its ability to do so unless good cause exists for the failure to make the designation within 2 that time period.

3 If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information at trial, the issue should 4 be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

5 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place
 6 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
 7 "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 8 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

9 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 10 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party's 11 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 12 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated 13 in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

14 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

15 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 16 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality 17 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 18 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 19 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 20 original designation is disclosed.

21 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
 22 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 23 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or 24 in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer
 25 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.
 26 The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith 27 effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

1 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
 2 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under 3 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 4 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 5 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 6 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to 7 maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

8 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
 9 LITIGATION

10 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
 11 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party 12 must:

13 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 14 subpoena or court order;

15 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 16 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 17 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

18 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 19 by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

20 8. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS
 21 LITIGATION

22 The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a non-party in this 23 action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by a non-parties in 24 connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order.
 25 Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a non-party from seeking 26 additional protections.

1 In the event that a party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a non-party's 2 confidential information in its possession, and the party is subject to an agreement with the non-3 party not to produce the non-party's confidential information, then the party shall:

4 (a) promptly notify in writing the requesting party and the non-party that some or all
5 of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a non-party;

6 (b) promptly provide the non-party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order in 7 this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the 8 information requested; and

9 (c) make the information requested available for inspection by the non-party.

10 If the non-party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within fourteen 11 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the receiving party may produce the 12 non-party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the non-party timely 13 seeks a protective order, the receiving party shall not produce any information in its possession
14 or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the non-party before a 15 determination by the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the non-party shall bear the 16 burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

17 9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

18 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential
19 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 20 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized 21 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, 22 (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 23 this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and 24 Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

11. NON-TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain confidential material. However, to the extent any such documents contain protected health information, counsel may not retain a copy and instead must either return to the Defendant or destroy documents containing protected health information, consistent with 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e)(1)(v)(B).

The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

12. PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

Certain Confidential Information may be Protected Health Information (“PHI”) as defined by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and the regulations promulgated thereunder at 45 CFR § 160.103. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, “PHI” includes (a) the past, present or future physical or mental condition of an individual, (b) the provision of care to an individual, or (c) the payment for care provided to an

1 individual, which identifies the individual or which reasonably could be expected to identify an 2 individual. All “covered entities” (as defined by 45 § CFR 160.103) are hereby authorized to 3 disclose PHI to all attorneys in this litigation. Subject to the rules of procedure governing this 4 litigation, and without prejudice to any Party’s objection except as otherwise provided herein,
5 the Parties are authorized to receive, subpoena, transmit, or disclose PHI relevant to the claims
6 at issue in this litigation and discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, subject to 7 all terms of this Protective Order. All PHI disclosed under this Protective Order must be 8 designated as Confidential Information under paragraphs 2 and 3 above.

9 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

10 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED AND DATED this 11th day of February, 2024.
